

SUPPORT GROUPS

Brandon Crisis Pregnancy Center

The Brandon Pregnancy Center offers free pregnancy tests, information on adoption, abortions, help finding a place to live, supports groups, maternity/baby items, and counseling. Visit their website at <http://www.cpc.org/brandon/> or call 813-654-0491.

Life for Kids

Life for Kids provides pregnancy, adoption and parenting services through the ministry of Gorman Family Life Center, Inc. Life for Kids provides support to birth mothers who have placed a child for adoption and those considering placing a child. The purpose of the group is to provide a setting where woman can gain peer support, general adoption information and post-adoption healing. Call 407-629-KIDS(5437) for more information.

The Pregnancy Resource Center

The Pregnancy Resource Center was founded in 1997 and provides a variety of fee services and programs to meet the needs of clients and the community. Some of their services include, but are not limited to, free pregnancy test, adoption support groups for birth mothers, child birth classes and a 24 hour hotline. Visit their website at <http://www.pregnancyinfocenter.com/> or call 239-513-9775.

The Sylvia Thomas Center for Adoptive and Foster Families

The Sylvia Thomas Center for Adoptive and Foster Families, Inc. is a community-based, parent-driven organization that provides services and supports to meet the identified needs of children and the families that adopt them. Support groups, resource library, and respite are just a few of the services they offer. Visit their website at www.SylviaThomasCenter.org or call 813-651-3150.